

Find out if your insurance provider covers Wegovy®

This guide gives you questions to ask your insurance provider so you can get all of the relevant information and know what to expect when filling your Wegovy® prescription.

Keep in mind that often your prescriptions may be managed separately from your medical insurance, so be sure to call the customer service number of your prescription insurance provider to find out.

Does my insurance provider cover Wegovy®?

Once you get an answer from your insurance provider about whether or not you have coverage for Wegovy®, use the follow-up questions below to gain additional information and plan for next steps.

01 / Yes, my insurance provider covers Wegovy®

Are there any specific requirements or steps my doctor or I need to take, such as prior authorization?

What would my copay cost be?

Have I met my deductible* and out-of-pocket requirements for the year? If not, how much remains?

Once I meet my deductible and out-of-pocket requirements, how much will my copay be for Wegovy®?

Does my insurance provider have an out-of-pocket limit or max? If so, how close am I to hitting it and what will my copay be for Wegovy® afterward?

Term to know

A deductible is a fixed amount that you are responsible for paying per year before your insurance provider will begin to cover part of the overall cost.*

01 / Yes, my insurance provider covers Wegovy® (cont'd)

Is this considered a commercial plan?

Are there other things to consider to ensure I'm getting the best price? For example, will a 90-day prescription cost less? Can I use a mail-order pharmacy or is there a specific pharmacy I need to use?

Savings tip

If you have a commercial insurance plan, you may be able to lower your cost with a Wegovy® Savings Card. Eligible patients may pay as little as $25 per 28-day supply (maximum savings of $200 per 28-day supply).
